Keys to Classic Muscle Car Presented to Twilight Star

Los Angeles, CA – October 15, 2010 -- Booboo Stewart of Twilight's Eclipse will be given the keys of his first car at Knott's Berry Farm on Saturday, November 6, 2010.

The 1979 Trans Am is a signing bonus for his lead role in Canyon257. "These are no ordinary wheels ... this is every teenager's dream," said Producer, Andy Whelchel of WAMM.

Stewart of Twilight wolf pack and six pack fame will star as the lead in Canyon257 playing a teen with an IQ of 257 enabling him to learn anything in no time flat. "Of course, he is battling to save the world," said Whelchel. "Like the Trans Am, Canyon will leave movie geniuses like Will Hunting (Good Will Hunting) in the dust. And, he's 21st century James Bond cool." Whelchel obtained the rights of this action adventure from Dr. Ron Law (Warriors of Virtue) and Jan Juknievich of Denver.

The keys will be presented to Booboo by a member of the audience in attendance. "It's a movie for teens by teens, so we're looking to utilize teen talents to give them what they want. There will be more announcements ahead and more opportunities for teens to be a part of making Canyon257, so the fun is just beginning," said Whelchel. "Booboo is very excited to be able to work with his fans on this project." Stay tuned.
